PREFACE

IN presenting the eighteenth volume of the MEDICAL DIRECTORY OF NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND CONNECTICUT, the Medical Society of the State of New York has endeavored to present the best Medical Directory possible of these three States.

In compiling the list of physicians in New York State, the resolution of the House of Delegates passed on May 19, 1906, has been strictly complied with, viz.:

"Resolved, That in the MEDICAL DIRECTORY OF NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND CONNECTICUT, published by the Medical Society of the State of New York, only the names of registered physicians be inserted."

The Medical Society of the State of New York will consider it a favor if any one finding errors in this book will report the same, so that they may be corrected in future editions.

The total number of physicians in lists contained in Volume XVIII of the MEDICAL DIRECTORY is 18,479, of which 14,224 are in New York State, 2,753 in New Jersey, 1,502 in Connecticut. Of the 14,224 physicians in New York State, 5,374 are credited to Manhattan and Bronx, 2,064 to Brooklyn, 268 to Queens, 75 to Richmond, a total for Greater New York of 7,781, which makes the number of physicians residing in the rest of the State, 6,443.

17 West 43d Street, New York.

October 10, 1916.

The Sprague Institute

is equipped with the most modern apparatus. Our methods have proven remarkably successful in removing traumatic exudates, fibrous ankylosis, cicatricial malformations, diffused adhesions, etc.

Diminishes pain and causes active elimination, produces absorption of effusion and deposits in joints; breaks up adhesions; reduces inflammatory processes; actively sedative.

For Mechano-Therapeutic Treatment

we use the Arthromotor. Gives painless, active and passive movements; prevents organization of exudates, fibrous ankylosis of joints, muscular atrophy; deforming contractions of muscles, etc.

Best possible results in shortest possible time.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—PURPOSE OF THE SOCIETY.

The purposes of the Society shall be to federate and bring into one compact organization the medical profession of the State of New York; to extend medical knowledge and advance medical science; to elevate the standard of medical education and to secure the enactment and enforcement of just medical laws; to promote friendly intercourse among physicians; to guard and foster the material interests of its members, and to protect them against imposition; and to enlighten and direct public opinion in regard to the great problems of State medicine.

ARTICLE II.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. The membership of this Society shall include all members of the county medical societies now in affiliation with this Society, and all members of other county medical societies to which charters shall be granted by the House of Delegates pursuant to the By-Laws of this Society, and any member ceasing to be a member of a county medical society shall cease to be a member of this Society.

Sec. 2. The term county medical society as used in this Constitution shall be deemed to include all societies now in affiliation with this Society or which may be organized and chartered by the House of Delegates.

Sec. 3. The membership of the Society shall be divided into eight district branches, as provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE III.—OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of the Society shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, and one Councilor from each District Branch. They shall be elected annually by ballot for the term of one year, except the Councilors, and the majority of the votes cast shall elect.

The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer shall be elected by the House of Delegates. At the first election in the District Branch societies hereafter held, the Councilors for the First, Second, Third and Fourth District Branches shall be elected for the term of two years. The Councilors for the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth District Branches shall be elected for one year, and thereafter all Councilors shall be elected for the term of two years by the District Branch of the District in which they reside and shall be the respective Presidents thereof.*

Sec. 2. All officers and the elected members of the standing committees shall assume office at the close of the annual meeting of the Society.

Sec. 3. No delegate elected to the House of Delegates shall be a candidate for a general office in the Society until after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been elected a delegate, and no person shall be elected to any office in the Society who shall not have been a member of the Society for two years immediately preceding the date of his election.

ARTICLE IV.—HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

The House of Delegates shall be the legislative body of the Society and shall be charged with the general management, superintendence and control of the Society and its affairs, and shall have such general powers as may be necessarily incident thereto. It shall have the power to suspend or otherwise discipline county societies. It shall be composed of the officers of the Society and of the chairmen of standing committees, who shall be ex-officio members thereof, and of the delegates elected to the House of Delegates by county societies in affiliation with the Society. Each county society shall be entitled to elect to the House of Delegates as many delegates as there shall be state assembly districts in that county at the time of the election; except that each county society shall be entitled to elect at least one delegate and except that whenever at the time of election the membership of a county society shall include members from an adjoining county or counties in which there shall be no county society in affiliation with this Society, such county society shall be entitled to elect, from among such members, as many additional delegates as there are assembly districts in the county or counties so represented in its membership.

The House of Delegates may provide for a division of the scientific work of the Society into appropriate sections, and for the organization of the District Branches; and it shall have such additional powers and duties not inconsistent with this Constitution as the By-Laws may authorize or prescribe. It may adopt rules and regulations for its own government and for the administration of the affairs of the Society, not repugnant to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society; and it may delegate to the Council such power and authority as may be necessary to the efficient administration of the affairs of the Society, while the House of Delegates shall not be in session.

ARTICLE V.—COUNCIL.

The Council shall be the executive body of the Society. It shall consist of the officers of the Society, except the Assistant Secretary and the Assistant Treasurer, and of the chairmen of standing committees. The retiring president shall be a member of the Council for one year after his term of office expires. The Council shall be the Finance Committee of the Society and shall have such additional powers and duties as the By-Laws may prescribe. It may adopt rules and regulations for its own government and for the administration of the affairs of the Society, within its control not repugnant to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society or to the rules and regulations which may be adopted by the House of Delegates.

ARTICLE VI.—MEETINGS.

Section 1. "The Medical Society of the State of New York may, from time to time, change the place and day of holding its annual meeting to such other place and day in the year as may be more convenient, by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the House of Delegates of said Society present at any anniversary or annual meeting of said Society, provided, that no such change shall be made unless notice of the intention to change the time and place of such annual meeting shall have been first given at a previous regular annual meeting. An entry in the minutes of said Society of notice of such intention to change the time and place of the annual meeting, and an entry in such minutes of the vote taken upon any motion made pursuant to any such notice, shall be prima facie evidence of such notice, motion, and the vote had thereon respectively." Chapter 213 of the laws of 1909.

Sec. 2. Intermediate stated meetings may be held at such time and place as the House of Delegates may appoint.

Sec. 3. The notices of the annual, regular and special meetings of the Medical Society of the State of New York, its House of Delegates, Council and Censors, shall state the date, place and hour, and shall be mailed in securely postpaid wrapper to each member, at least ten days before said meeting. The affidavit of mailing by the Secretary of the Society to the last recorded address of the member shall be deemed sufficient proof of the service of such notice upon each and every member for any and all purposes.

ARTICLE VII.—FUNDS.

Section 1. Funds shall be raised by an annual per capita assessment on each county society at a uniform per capita rate throughout the State. Funds may also be raised by voluntary contributions, by the sale of the publications of the Society, and in any other manner approved by the House of Delegates. No funds of the Society shall be appropriated for any purpose except by authority of a resolution of the Council, nor shall any indebtedness be incurred by officers, members of committees or members of the Society until the same shall have been approved by the Council.

Sec. 2. The State annual per capita assessment shall be $3, and shall be collected by the county treasurers at the same time and as part of the county dues, and shall be remitted to the State Treasurer by the treasurer of each county society on or before the first day of June of each year.

ARTICLE VIII.—REFERENDUM.

Section 1. At any annual or stated meeting of the Society a majority of the members present may order a general referendum on any question in accordance with such general regulations respecting the manner of submission as the House of Delegates may prescribe. Members of the Society may vote thereon by mail or by roll call in open meeting. The poll on the question shall be closed at the expiration of ten days after the general submission; and if the members voting shall comprise a majority of all the members of the Society, a majority of such vote shall determine the question and be binding on the House of Delegates.

Sec. 2. The House of Delegates may voluntarily, by the vote of a majority of its members present at any meeting, submit any question before it to a general referendum, as provided in the preceding section, and the result shall be binding on the House of Delegates.

ARTICLE IX.—AMENDMENTS.

No article of this Constitution shall be amended except by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present at any annual meeting, nor unless notice of the proposed amendment shall have been given at a previous annual meeting and shall have been published twice during the year in the official bulletin or journal of the Society, or sent by order of the House of Delegates to each county society in affiliation with the Society at least two months before the meeting at which final action shall be taken thereon.

BY-LAWS.

CHAPTER 1.—MEMBERSHIP.

RETIRED MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 2. Members in good standing who are seventy years of age or over may, by a majority vote of the House of Delegates present and voting at any annual meeting, become retired members. Applicants for retired membership must be approved and endorsed by the President and Secretary of the County Society to which they belong, and the application must be sent to the Secretary of the State Society in time for presentation at the first meeting of the House of Delegates. Retired members shall be entitled to the privilege of attending and addressing the meetings of the Society, but shall not be accorded other rights or privileges of membership, nor be subject to assessments.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 3. Honorary membership may be conferred upon distinguished physicians residing outside of the State of New York at any annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present and voting, provided the nomination has been made at a previous annual meeting. All such nominations must be endorsed by three members of the Society and forwarded to the Secretary in time for presentation at the first meeting of the House of Delegates. Honorary members shall be entitled to the privilege of attending and addressing the meetings of the Society, but shall not be accorded other rights or privileges of membership, nor be subject to assessments.

Sec. 2. Thirty delegates shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 3. The House of Delegates shall make careful inquiry into the condition of the profession in each county of the State, and shall have authority to adopt such methods and measures not in conflict with the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society as it may deem most efficient for building up and increasing the interest in such county societies as already exist; for organizing the profession in counties where societies do not exist; for organizing district branches and for protecting the members of the Society against suits for alleged malpractice.

No member shall be eligible for any office, or entitled to vote for any officer or delegate who is in arrears for county dues and State per capita assessment.

Sec. 10. Method of Holding Elections.—All elections shall be by ballot, and a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect. In case no nominee receives a majority of the votes on the first ballot, the nominee receiving the lowest number of the votes shall be dropped and a new ballot taken. This procedure shall be continued until one of the nominees receives a majority of all the votes cast, when he shall be declared elected, but in case no delegate or alternate for the American Medical Association receives on the first ballot a majority of the votes, the nominees shall be declared elected in the order of the highest number of votes received, until the allotted number shall have been chosen. In case of a tie vote for delegate or alternate a new ballot shall be taken.

Sec. 5. Each District Councilor shall visit the counties of his district at least once a year. He shall make an annual report of his work and of the condition of the profession in each county in his district at the annual session of the House of Delegates. The necessary traveling expenses incurred by each councilor in the line of his duties as herein defined may be allowed by the Council on a proper itemized statement; but this shall not be construed to include his expense in attending the annual session of the Society.

Sec. 4. Each section shall hold its meetings at such times as designated by the Committee on Scientific Work.

CHAPTER X.—COUNTY SOCIETIES.

Section 1. County societies shall be organized as soon as practicable in every county of the State in which no county society exists, but there shall be but one county society in each county.

Sec. 2. Full and ample opportunity shall be given to every reputable physician to become a member of the society in the county in which he resides, and if there be no such society, then in the county society of an adjoining county.

Sec. 3. Whenever a member in good standing in any county medical society removes to another county in this State, his name, upon his request, shall be transferred to the roster of the county society of the county to which he removes, without cost to him.

Sec. 4. At its annual meeting each county society shall elect a delegate or delegates to represent it in the House of Delegates of this Society in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of this Society.

Sec. 5. The Secretary of each county society shall keep a roster of its members and of all other registered physicians of the county, in which shall be shown the full name of such physicians, with their addresses, the college from which they graduated, and the date of graduation, the date of their license to practice in this State, and such other information as may be deemed to be useful. In keeping such roster the Secretary shall note any changes in the personnel of the profession by death or by the removal to or from the county, and in making his annual report he shall account for every physician who shall have practised in the county during the year.

Sec. 6. The Secretary of each county society shall forward a copy of its roster of officers and members, list of delegates and list of other registered physicians of the county, to the Secretary of this Society thirty days before the date of its annual meeting.

Sec. 2. All papers read before the Society by its members shall become the property of the Society. Permission may be given, however, by the House of Delegates or the Committee on Publication to publish such paper in advance of its appearance in The New York State Journal of Medicine.

Sec. 3. Any distinguished physician of a foreign country or a physician not a resident of this State, who is a member of his own State Association, may become a guest during any annual session upon the invitation of the President or officers of the Society, and may be accorded the privilege of participating in all the scientific work of the session.

The Council of the Society may, between meetings of the House of Delegates, make such changes in these By-Laws as may be required to adapt them to the Laws of the State of New York or the United States or to resolutions of the Post Office or any Federal department. Such amendments must be approved at the next meeting of the House of Delegates.

PRINCIPLES OF MEDICAL ETHICS.*

CHAPTER I.—THE DUTIES OF PHYSICIANS TO THEIR PATIENTS.

Section 1. Physicians should not only be ever ready to obey the calls of the sick and the injured, but should be mindful of the high character of their mission and of the responsibilities they must incur in the discharge of momentous duties. In their ministrations they should never forget that the comfort, the health, and the lives of those entrusted to their care depend on skill, attention and fidelity. In deportment they should unite tenderness, cheerfulness and firmness, and thus inspire all sufferers with gratitude, respect and confidence. These observances are the more sacred because, generally, the only tribunal to adjudge penalties for unkindness, carelessness or neglect is their own conscience.

Sec. 2. Every patient committed to the charge of a physician should be treated with attention and humanity, and reasonable indulgence should be granted to the caprices of the sick. Secrecy and delicacy should be strictly observed; and the familiar and confidential intercourse to which physicians are admitted, in their professional visits, should be guarded with the most scrupulous fidelity and honor.

Sec. 3. The obligation of secrecy extends beyond the period of professional services; none of the privacies of individual or domestic life, no infirmity of disposition or flaw of character observed during medical attendance, should ever be divulged by physicians, except when imperatively required by the laws of the State. The force of the obligation of secrecy is so great that physicians have been protected in its observance by courts of justice.

Sec. 4. Frequent visits to the sick are often requisite, since they enable the physician to arrive at a more perfect knowledge of the disease, and to meet promptly every change which may occur. Unnecessary visits are to be avoided, as they give undue anxiety to the patient; but to secure the patient against irritating suspense and disappointment the regular and periodical visits of the physician should be made as nearly as possible at the hour when they may be reasonably expected by the patient.

Sec. 5. Ordinarily, the physician should not be forward to make gloomy prognostications, but should not fail, on proper occasions, to give timely notice of dangerous manifestations to the friends of the patient; and even to the patient, if absolutely necessary. This notice, however, is at times so peculiarly alarming when given by the physician that its deliverance may often be preferably assigned to another person of good judgment.

Sec. 6. The physician should be a minister of hope and comfort to the sick, since life may be lengthened or shortened not only by the acts but by the words or manner of the physician, whose solemn duty is to avoid all utterances and actions having a tendency to discourage and depress the patient.

Sec. 7. The medical attendant ought not to abandon a patient because deemed incurable; for continued attention may be highly useful to the sufferer and comforting to the relatives, even in the last period of the fatal malady, by alleviating pain and by soothing mental anguish.

Sec. 8. The opportunity which a physician has of promoting and strengthening the good resolutions of patients suffering under the consequences of evil conduct ought never to be neglected. Good counsels, or even remonstrances, will give satisfaction, not offense, if they be tactfully proffered and evince a genuine love of virtue, accompanied by a sincere interest in the welfare of the person to whom they are addressed.

*Adopted by the Medical Society of the State of New York, May 10, 1906.

CHAPTER II.—THE DUTIES OF PHYSICIANS TO EACH OTHER AND TO THE PROFESSION AT LARGE.

ARTICLE I.—DUTIES FOR THE SUPPORT OF PROFESSIONAL CHARACTER.

Section 1. Every one on entering the profession, and thereby becoming entitled to full professional fellowship, incurs an obligation to uphold its dignity and honor, to exalt its standing and to extend the bounds of its usefulness. It is inconsistent with the principles of medical science and it is incompatible with honorable standing in the profession for physicians to designate their practice as based on an exclusive dogma or a sectarian system of medicine.

Sec. 2. The physician should observe strictly such laws as are instituted for the government of the members of the profession; should honor the fraternity as a body; should endeavor to promote the science and art of medicine and should entertain a due respect for those seniors who, by their labors, have contributed to its advancement.

Sec. 3. Every physician should identify himself with the organized body of his profession as represented in the community in which he resides. The organization of local or county medical societies, where they do not exist, should be effected, so far as practicable. Such county societies, constituting as they do the chief element of strength in the organization of the profession, should have the active support of their members and should be made instruments for the cultivation of fellowship, for the exchange of professional experience, for the advancement of medical knowledge, for the maintenance of ethical standards, and for the promotion in general of the interests of the profession and the welfare of the public.

Sec. 4. All county medical societies thus organized ought to place themselves in affiliation with their respective State associations, and these, in turn, with the American Medical Association.

Sec. 5. There is no profession from the members of which greater purity of character and a higher standard of moral excellence are required than the medical; and to attain such eminence is a duty every physician owes alike to the profession and to patients. It is due to the patients, as without it their respect and confidence cannot be commanded; and to the profession, because no scientific attainments can compensate for the want of correct moral principles.

Sec. 6. It is incumbent on physicians to be temperate in all things, for the practice of medicine requires the unremitting exercise of a clear and vigorous understanding; and in emergencies—for which no physician should be unprepared—a steady hand, an acute eye and an unclouded mind are essential to the welfare and even to the life of a human being.

Sec. 7. It is incompatible with honorable standing in the profession to resort to public advertisement or private cards inviting the attention of persons affected with particular diseases; to promise radical cures; to publish cases or operations in the daily prints, or to suffer such publications to be made; to invite laymen (other than relatives who may desire to be at hand) to be present at operations; to boast of cures and remedies; to adduce certificates of skill and success, or to employ any of the other methods of charlatans.

Sec. 8. It is equally derogatory to professional character for physicians to hold patents for any surgical instrument or medicines; to accept rebates on prescriptions or surgical appliances; to assist unqualified persons to evade the legal restrictions governing the practice of medicine; or to dispense, or promote the use of, secret medicines, for if such nostrums are of real efficacy, any concealment regarding them is inconsistent with beneficence and professional liberality, and if mystery alone gives them public notoriety, such craft implies either disgraceful ignorance or fraudulent avarice. It is highly reprehensible for physicians to give certificates attesting the efficacy of secret medicines, or other substances used therapeutically.

ARTICLE II.—PROFESSIONAL SERVICES OF PHYSICIANS TO EACH OTHER.

Section 1. Physicians should not, as a general rule, undertake the treatment of themselves, nor of members of their family. In such circumstances they are peculiarly dependent on each other; therefore, kind offices and professional aid should always be cheerfully and gratuitously afforded. These visits ought not, however, to be obtrusively made, as they may give rise to embarrassment or interfere with that free choice on which such confidence depends.

Sec. 2. All practising physicians and their immediate family dependents are entitled to the gratuitous services of any one or more of the physicians residing near them.

Sec. 3. When a physician is summoned from a distance to the bedside of a colleague in easy financial circumstances, a compensation, proportionate to traveling expenses and to the pecuniary loss entailed by absence from the accustomed field of professional labor, should be made by the patient or relatives.

Sec. 4. When more than one physician is attending another, one of the number should take charge of the case, otherwise the concert of thought and action so essential to wise treatment cannot be assured.

Sec. 5. The affairs of life, the pursuit of health, and the various accidents and contingencies to which a physician is peculiarly exposed sometimes require the temporary withdrawal of this physician from daily professional labor and the appointment of a colleague to act for a specified time. The colleague's compliance is an act of courtesy which should always be performed with the utmost consideration for the interest and character of the family physician.

ARTICLE III.—THE DUTIES OF PHYSICIANS IN REGARD TO CONSULTATIONS.

Section 1. The broadest dictates of humanity should be obeyed by physicians whenever and wherever their services are needed to meet the emergencies of disease or accident.

Sec. 2. Consultations should be promoted in difficult cases, as they contribute to confidence and more enlarged views of practice.

Sec. 3. The utmost punctuality should be observed in the visits of physicians when they are to hold consultations, and this is generally practicable, for society has been so considerate as to allow the plea for a professional engagement to take precedence over all others.

Sec. 4. As professional engagements may sometimes cause delay in attendance, the physician who first arrives should wait for a reasonable time, after which the consultation should be considered as postponed to a new appointment.

Sec. 5. In consultations no insincerity, rivalry or envy should be indulged; candor, probity and all due respect should be observed toward the physician in charge of the case.

Sec. 6. No statement or discussion of the case should take place before the patient or friends, except in the presence of all the physicians attending, or by their common consent; and no opinions or prognostications should be delivered which are not the result of previous deliberations and concurrence.

Sec. 7. No decision should restrain the attending physician from making such subsequent variations in the mode of treatment as any unexpected change in the character of the case may demand. But at the next consultation reasons for the variations should be stated. The same privilege, with its obligation, belongs to the consultant when sent for in an emergency during the absence of the family physician.

Sec. 8. The attending physician, at any time, may prescribe for the patient; not so the consultant, when alone, except in a case of emergency or when called from a considerable distance. In the first instance the consultant should do what is needed, and in the second should do no more than make an examination of the patient and leave a written opinion, under seal, to be delivered to the attending physician.

Sec. 9. All discussions in consultation should be held as confidential. Neither by words nor by manner should any of the participants in a consultation assert or intimate that any part of the treatment pursued did not receive his assent.

Sec. 10. It may happen that two physicians cannot agree in their views of the nature of a case and of the treatment to be pursued. In the event of such disagreement a third physician should, if practicable, be called in. None but the rarest and most exceptional circumstances would justify the consultant in taking charge of the case. He should not do so merely on the solicitation of the patient or friends.

Sec. 11. A physician who is called in consultation should observe the most honorable and scrupulous regard for the character and standing of the attending physician, whose conduct of the case should be justified, as far as can be, consistently with a conscientious regard for truth, and no hint or insinuation should be thrown out which would impair the confidence reposed in the attending physician.

ARTICLE IV.—DUTIES OF PHYSICIANS IN CASES OF INTERFERENCE.

Section 1. Medicine being a liberal profession, those admitted to its ranks should found their expectations of practice especially on the character and the extent of their medical education.

Sec. 2. The physician, in the intercourse with a patient under the care of another physician, should observe the strictest caution and reserve; should give no disingenuous hints relative to the nature and treatment of the patient's disorder; nor should tho course of conduct of the physician, directly or indirectly, tend to diminish the trust reposed in the attending physician.

Sec. 3. The same circumspection should be observed when, from motives of business or friendship, a physician is prompted to visit a person who is under the direction of another physician. Indeed, such visits should be avoided, except under peculiar circumstances, and, when they are made no inquiries should be instituted relative to the nature of the disease, or the remedies employed, but the topics of conversation should be as foreign to the case as circumstances will admit.

Sec. 4. A physician ought not to take charge of, nor prescribe for, a patient who has recently been under the care of another physician, in the same illness, except in case of a sudden emergency, or in consultation with the physician previously in attendance, or when that physician has relinquished the case or has been dismissed in due form.

Sec. 5. The physician acting in conformity with the preceding section should not make damaging insinuations regarding the practice previously adopted, and, indeed, should justify it if consistent with truth and probity; for it often happens that patients become dissatisfied when they are not immediately relieved, and, as many diseases are naturally protracted, the seeming want of success, in the first stage of treatment, affords no evidence of a lack of professional knowledge or skill.

Sec. 6. When a physician is called to an urgent case, because the family attendant is not at hand, unless assistance in consultation is desired, the former should resign the care of the patient immediately on the arrival of the family physician.

Sec. 7. It often happens, in cases of sudden illness, and of accidents and injuries, owing to the alarm and anxiety of friends, that several physicians are simultaneously summoned. Under these circumstances, courtesy should assign the patient to the first who arrives, and who, if necessary, may invoke the aid of some of those present. In such cases, however, the acting physician should request that the family physician be called, and should withdraw unless requested to continue in attendance.

Sec. 8. Whenever a physician is called to the patient of another physician during the enforced absence of that physician, the case should be relinquished on the return of the latter.

Sec. 9. A physician, while visiting a sick person in the country, may be asked to see another physician's patient because of a sudden aggravation of the disease. On such an occasion the immediate needs of the patient should be attended to and the case relinquished on the arrival of the attending physician.

Sec. 10. When a physician who has been engaged to attend an obstetric case is absent and another is sent for, delivery being accomplished during the vicarious attendance, the acting physician is entitled to the professional fee, but must resign the patient on the arrival of the physician first engaged.

ARTICLE V.—DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PHYSICIANS.

Section 1. Diversity of opinion and opposition of interest may, in the medical as in other professions, sometimes occasion controversy and even contention. Whenever such unfortunate cases occur and cannot be immediately adjusted, they should be referred to the arbitration of a sufficient number of impartial physicians.

Sec. 2. A peculiar reserve must be maintained by physicians toward the public in regard to some professional questions, and as there exist many points in medical ethics and etiquette through which the feelings of physicians may be painfully assailed in their intercourse, and which cannot be understood or appreciated by general society, neither the subject-matter of their differences nor the adjudication of the arbitrators should be made public.

ARTICLE VI.—COMPENSATION.

Section I. By the members of no profession are eleemosynary services more liberally dispensed than by the medical, but justice requires that some limits should be placed to their performance. Poverty, mutual professional obligations, and certain of the public duties named in Sections 1 and 2 of Chapter III should always be recognized as presenting valid claims for gratuitous services; but neither institutions endowed by the public or by the rich, or by societies for mutual benefit, for life insurance, or for analogous purposes, nor any profession or occupation can be admitted to possess such privilege.

Sec. 2. It cannot be justly expected of physicians to furnish certificates of inability to serve on juries, or to perform militia duty; to testify to the state of health of persons wishing to insure their lives, obtain pensions, or the like, without due compensation, but to persons in indigent circumstances such services should always be cheerfully and freely accorded.

Sec. 3. Some general rules should be adopted by the physicians in every town or district relative to the minimum pecuniary acknowledgment from their patients; and it should be deemed a point of honor to adhere to these rules with as much uniformity as varying circumstances will admit.

Sec. 4. It is derogatory to professional character for physicians to pay or offer to pay commissions to any person whatsoever who may recommend to them patients requiring general or special treatment or surgical operations. It is equally derogatory to professional character for physicians to solicit or to receive such commissions.

CHAPTER III.—THE DUTIES OF THE PROFESSION TO THE PUBLIC.

Section 1. As good citizens it is the duty of physicians to be very vigilant for the welfare of the community, and to bear their part in sustaining its laws, institutions and burdens; especially should they be ready to co-operate with the proper authorities in the administration and the observance of sanitary laws and regulations, and they should also be ever ready to give counsel to the public in relation to subjects especially appertaining to their profession, as on questions of sanitary police, public hygiene and legal medicine.

Sec. 2. It is the province of physicians to enlighten the public in regard to quarantine regulations; to the location, arrangement and dietaries of hospitals, asylums, schools, prisons and similar institutions; in regard to measures for the prevention of epidemic and contagious diseases; and, when pestilence prevails, it is their duty to face the danger, and to continue their labors for the alleviation of the suffering people, even at the risk of their own lives.

Sec. 3. Physicians, when called on by legally constituted authorities, should always be ready to enlighten inquests and courts of justice on subjects strictly medical, such as involve questions relating to sanity, legitimacy, murder by poison or other violent means, and various other subjects embraced in the science of medical jurisprudence. It is but just, however, for them to expect due compensation for their services.

Sec. 4. It is the duty of physicians, who are frequent witnesses of the great wrongs committed by charlatans, and of the injury to health and even destruction of life caused by the use of their treatment, to enlighten the public on these subjects, and to make known the injuries sustained by the unwary from the devices and pretensions of artful impostors.

Sec. 5. It is the duty of physicians to recognize and by legitimate patronage to promote the profession of pharmacy, on the skill and proficiency of which depends the reliability of remedies, but any pharmacist who, although educated in his own profession, is not a qualified physician, and who assumes to prescribe for the sick, ought not to receive such countenance and support. Any druggist or pharmacist who dispenses deteriorated or sophisticated drugs or who substitutes one remedy for another designated in a prescription ought thereby to forfeit the recognition and influence of physicians.

LEGAL DUTIES OF PHYSICIANS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH.

1. All physicians practising in the City of New York (including those in public institutions) must be registered with the Department of Health.

2. An attending physician must furnish a certificate of death within thirty-six hours after the death of the patient, or, if death be due to a contagious or infectious disease, forthwith.

3. If a person dies from criminal violence, or by a casualty, or suddenly when in apparent health, or when unattended by a physician, or in prison, or in any suspicious or unusual manner, the case must be referred to a Coroner.

4. It shall be the duty of every physician to report to the Department of Health, in writing, the full name, age, and address of every person suffering from any infectious diseases within twenty-four hours of the time when the case is first seen.

5. Physicians must report births occurring in their practice within ten days after the event.

6. Every physician must preserve a duplicate record of every death and birth so reported.

7. Certificates of death will be returned for additional information which give any of the following diseases, without explanation, as the sole cause of death: Abortion, Cellulitis, Childbirth, Convulsions, Erysipelas, Gangrene, Gastritis, Haemorrhage, Meningitis, Metritis, Miscarriage, Peritonitis, Phlebitis, Pyaemia, Septicaemia, Tetanus.

(Any one of these may be the result of an injury, and thus be a subject for investigation by a Coroner. If it is not, the certificate should make that fact plain.)

8. No certificate will be accepted which gives a mere symptom as the sole cause of death, such as "asphyxia," "debility," "dropsy," "heart failure," etc., unless accompanied by a satisfactory written explanation.

9. Certificates containing palpable errors of names, dates, etc., which are illegible will be returned, and a new certificate required, as no corrections, erasures, or interlineations will be permitted.

(These certificates are permanent records of great legal importance, and it is necessary that they should show upon the face that they are original records and have not been tampered with.)

10. All changes of address and discontinuance of treatment on the part of their consumptive patients are to be reported promptly to the Department of Health once a month.

11. All necessary precautions must be taken to prevent the spread of the disease, e.g., isolation and quarantine in cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis, acute poliomyelitis, disinfection of typhoid excreta and of tuberculosis sputum.

12. It shall be the duty of every undertaker having notice of the death of any person within the City of New York of small-pox, diphtheria (croup), scarlet fever, yellow fever, typhus fever, plague, Asiatic cholera, measles, or any other infectious disease dangerous to the general health of the community, or of the bringing of the dead body of any person who has died of any such disease into such city, to give immediate notice thereof to this Department. No person shall retain or expose, or assist in the retention or exposure of the dead body of any such person except in a coffin or casket properly sealed; nor shall he allow any such body to be placed in any coffin or casket unless the body has been wrapped in a sheet saturated with a proper disinfecting solution, and the coffin or casket shall then be immediately and permanently sealed. No undertaker shall assist in the public or church funeral of any such person. No undertaker shall use, or cause or allow to be used, at any funeral, or in any room where the dead body of any person shall be, any draperies, decorations, rugs or carpets, belonging to or furnished by him or under his direction.

13. A public or church funeral shall not be held of any person who has died of small-pox, diphtheria (croup) scarlet fever, yellow fever, typhus fever, Asiatic cholera, measles, or plague; but the funeral of such person shall be private, and it shall not be lawful to invite, or permit at the funeral of any person who has died of any one of the above diseases, or of any infectious disease, or at any services connected therewith, any person whose attendance is not necessary, or to whom there is danger of contagion.

By order of the Board of Health.
